ETA: Also, I'm not quite sure what to do with Izzy Sweet, the local chocolatier who's African-American and whose lack of popularity with the locals is because she's new in town. On the setting, I enjoyed trying to work out where in Connecticut the imaginary "Frog Ledge" is supposed to be conclusion: it's sort of a combination of Lebanon small town and Windham the frogs, a story that was apparently irresistible to the author - not that I blame. When Stan arrives for the appointment, the vet is nowhere to be .
